

Judith Kleinemeier

Languages and Image Lesson by: Simon Ferdinando

Judith got inspired by the things that happen when people wear certain clothes. She says you'd be amazed what happened if someone is wearing a heavy beautiful cape or what happens if they don't. You will get the attention of the cape moving gracious through the hallway. And that's somehow the absurd fact of wearing clothes. Also she pointed out The exposition she visited of Victor and Rolf in Utrecht. They had a dress with beautiful bells and when the model started to walk you could hear her moving. Judith was totally amazed, "That's what has inspired me. The sound the movement, the graciousness of wearing clothes"

Words by Merel Woudwijk

